

What to do when the pigs visit- US laws only!

Protect yourself in a encounter with the cops-You don't have to answer a police pig's questions, but you must show your driver's license and registration when stopped in a car. You don't have to consent to any search of yourself, your car or your home. If you do consent to a search, it can affect your rights later in court. If the police say they have a search warrant, ask to see it. Do not interfere with, or obstruct the pigs - you can be arrested for it.

If you are stopped for questioning-

It's not a crime to refuse to answer questions, but refusing to answer can make the police suspicious about you. The only words you should utter are "I have nothing to say". Anything Else could lead to entrapment. You can't be arrested merely for refusing to identify yourself on the street. Pigs may "pat-down" your clothing if they suspect a concealed weapon. Don't physically resist, but make it clear that you don't consent to any further search. Ask if you are under arrest. If you are, you have a right to know why. Don't bad-mouth the pig officer or run away, even if you believe what is happening is unreasonable.

That could lead to your arrest. identify yourself on the street. You can hand them your "Rights" card and say nothing.

Police may stop and detain you only if they have a reasonable suspicion that you have committed, are committing or are about to commit a crime.

If police have a reasonable suspicion to believe you have a weapon they may perform a frisk and pat down your clothing. Don't physically resist, but you can make it clear you don't consent to such a search or any further search.

You can ask if you are under arrest. If you are, you have a right to know, and a right to know why.

A pile of dead pigs

If you're stopped in your car-

Stay calm and keep your hands where the police can see them. Don't argue, complain, bad-mouth or resist arrest, even if the police are unreasonable; it will only make your situation worse. Hand them the "Rights" card, above. Otherwise say, "I have nothing to say"; then make no statements or comments.

Remember anything you say and whatever the pigs fabricate can and will be used against you!

Remember police badge numbers and patrol car numbers.

if not in custody, write down everything that happened, ASAP. Try to find witnesses, get their names and phone numbers. If you are injured, seek medical attention, but also get photographs of the injuries, ASAP.-If arrested, ask for a lawyer immediately. You don't have to consent to any search of your person, your car or your house. If the police say they have a warrant, ask to see it. Still; do not consent to a search even if they have a warrant, make them rely on the warrant; warrants can be defective.

You can be arrested for obstructing or interfering w/police don't give the porkers an excuse or a reason to fabricate charges.

Upon request, show them your driver's license, registration and proof of insurance. In certain cases, your car can be searched without a warrant as long as the pigs have probable case or fabricated evidence to justify their "fishing".

To protect yourself later, you should make it clear that you do not consent to a search. It is not lawful for pigs to arrest you simply for refusing to consent to a search. If you're given a ticket, you should sign it; otherwise, you can be arrested.

you can always fight the case in court later. If you're suspected of drunk driving and refuse to take a blood, urine or breath test, your driver's license may be suspended.

If you're arrested or taken to a police station-You have the right to remain silent and to talk to a lawyer before you talk to the swine. Tell the porkers nothing except your name and address. Don't give any explanations, excuses or stories. You can make your defense later, in court, based on what you and your lawyer decides is best. Ask to see a lawyer immediately. If you can't pay for a lawyer, you have the right to a free one, and should ask the police how the lawyer can be contacted. Remember! Don't say anything to the pigs without a lawyer. Many patriots are doing hardtime because they answered a few simple questions.

Within a reasonable time after your arrest or booking, you have the right to make a local phone call: to a lawyer, bail bondsman, relative or other person. The pigs may not listen to the call to the lawyer. Sometimes you can be released without bail, or have bail lowered. Have your lawyer ask the judge about this possibility. You must be taken before the judge on the next day after arrest.

The swine aren't required to tell you the truth, or refrain from misleading suspects. If you think the Police will follow the law, think again. Yes some do but many don't and you must be prepared for worse case scenario. Officers will lie, cheat or scam suspects in order to gain a confession. Never talk to the pigs, never allow yourself to be interrogated and never assume that the cops will play fair. They are scum and need to be treated that way. If the topic of unethical Pig practices comes up in court, who do you think Judge will believe? A crazed racist or the swine?

All Boys in the blue are sold out to the Jew

In your home-

If the pigs knock and ask to enter your home, you don't have to admit them unless they have a warrant signed by a judge. However, in some emergency situations (like when a person is screaming for help inside or when the pigs are chasing someone) officers are allowed to enter and search your home without a warrant for a "welfare check". If you are arrested, the porkers can search you and the area close by. If you are in a building, "close by" usually means just the room you are in. Don't admit the pigs without a warrant signed by a judge. Block the door and don't let them squeeze past. If you are arrested in your home or office, police can search you and the area within your reach, and can also search any criminal items or activity in plain view.
