Dr. Wesley A. Swift

Dr. Wesley A. Swift, the son of a Methodist minister, was called to preach in his teens. He was a dynamic, inspired speaker who taught uncompromising Biblical truths ignored by modernist ministers. His anointed preaching brought forth a high spiritual dimension of understanding to the Kingdom Identity message, giving “life” and “power” to the Sacred Word. Even the antichrists acknowledge that, “Wesley Swift is considered the single most significant figure in the early years of the Christian Identity movement in the United States.”

Dr. Swift founded the Church of Jesus Christ – Christian in the 1940’s, a ministry that spread the Kingdom Identity message nation-wide to YHVH’s Children, the White spirit-race known Scripturally as “sons of God”. By teaching these truths to true Israel, this warrior-priest put fear in the hearts of the enemies of Christ. Following Dr. Swift’s death in 1970, his widow Lorraine Swift faithfully carried on the Church of Jesus Christ – Christian. We are highly honoured to be able to continue Dr. Swift’s work, by placing those works that we have in print here on our web site ...preserving and earnestly contending for “the faith which was once delivered unto the saints”...for any and all to read.

We, at the Covenant Church of Yahweh hope that you will study, enjoy, and appreciate Dr. Wesley Swift’s works.

Wherever Christian communities live, wherever they carried out the activities of their faith, their thoughts somehow converge around a pattern of events which is very vital to historical Christianity. It is very vital to you and I, the children of the Kingdom, the sons and daughters of God, to realize that in this period which has been classified as the Lenten period, that we are participating in what is known as Palm Sunday throughout Christendom. This of course dates back to those historic events and conditions in the life of Christ, and were a prelude to the events which were quickly to follow. Those events led up to His trial, crucifixion, and His resurrection. So we also would think upon some of these events, especially as they relate to us, because throughout one end of Christendom to the other, as they think and discuss the acceptance of the Christ by the people who desired to Crown Him King, they remember that these people shouted Hosanna to the Son of David, Blessed is YAHSHUA who comes in the name of YAHWEH. This was there declaration, and of course it was an acceptance of the mysteries of the embodiment of God. It was an acceptance of the declaration made in the Book of Isaiah chapter 43. 'I YAHWEH am thy YAHSHUA. I the Lord God art thy Saviour.' Here He was saying: you are my people, you are to know that I am thy Saviour, that I am thy redeemer. These are the declarations recorded by Isaiah, and recorded just for you.

This was an acceptance that day when the crowds gathered around the gates of Jerusalem and along the road as the crowd shouted to Jesus: Hosanna in the highest, to the Son of David, Blessed is YAHSHUA who comes in the name of YAHWEH.' But in the instance of this many people have also been told by their pastors, that people in the masses are very fickle. They have been told that here one week before the great events were to start in their sequence, that the crowd was calling for the crowning of The Christ, and then one week later, they were calling for HIS death, and saying: 'Let His blood be upon us, and upon our children.' I want to totally repudiate this area of error which has moved into the Christian narrative concerning these events, because the people who stood at the gate to Jerusalem and along this highway and shouted: Hosanna to the Highest, were not, I repeat, were not the people who stood before Pilate's Court and said: 'His blood be upon us and upon our children.' Matthew 27:25

I do not want you to think, for one moment, that this was due to the changing of the mind of the mob, and the pressure of the status of this situation. Because there was never at any time in these people who thronged around Jesus, and made up the masses you listened to His every word, never at any time was these they who called for His blood, and repudiated Him because of the pressure of Jewry, or of Rome.

One must understand the backlog of conditions which led up to this day because, from the very hour of the Birth of The Christ, and the mighty manifestations which had surrounded His Birth, these events had become a tradition from one end of Palestine to the other. The heavenly host had after all, sailed over the hills and had heralded the coming of The Christ child to the Shepherds and others. The great megaphones which shouted down to them what was about to happen was part of this story, as well as the great searchlight which shown down upon the hills to illuminate the area around about. And the Shepherds were told that being born in the city of David was a Saviour who was YAHSHUA, or Christ the Lord. And in those instances this had become not only a historical tradition, but it had followed the ministry of The Christ, with whom they were identified.

There existed in this land of Palestine ever since the days of the re-entrance of this remnant of Judah and Benjamin with their quota of Levi, this Essene company. And these Essenes were a very vital force in what was transpiring. These people were Bible students, and theological students. They were the true Priesthood which should have been properly serving as Levites in the Temple. And with them also were members of the inheritance line of the government of Ancient Israel. From the days of the return from Babylon to the land of Palestine there had been an infiltration into that land, for the take over of that land. And this had taken place by the time of Christ, because now, Herod, King of the Jews was in control, and the Temple was largely in the hands of those who were enemies of the true Faith. They were false Pharisees, as well as Canaanites, in high positions of Power. And Jesus was one of the first to identify them as to who they were, and what they are, for Biblical records. Thus it was that the Essene company who were of the Israel Priesthood itself, and was made up of families who had come down from the days of the captivity, and had been formally in the Military service, and in the areas of instruction such as teachers.

They were also of the true schools among Judah and Benjamin for knowledge, wisdom and technology, and the two great mystery schools of wisdom, where they were teaching the application of natural law, under spiritual guidance, and also teaching the spiritual law which was so vital in the wisdom and knowledge of our race. And so these of the Essene company had recognized what was transpiring in their land, and that it was no longer safe for them to be identified in the centre of the community.

So out in the outskirts of every major community, in Palestine, and even outside of Jerusalem, you found these of the Essenes, in the caves and hills where the old caverns had been cut from the water courses of the past. And in these caves and caverns carefully disguised out in this wilderness the Essene company had built their libraries, their assembly rooms, and even their arsenals. And they were prepared for one dedicated task which was to bring back the Glory of the Kingdom of Israel. Their design was to help in every way that they could by scholastic report and record by keeping alive the Ancient Scriptures, and all the Ancient areas of truth. And by preserving their manuscripts because even in their time there was already the intent to change, and even to remove whole areas of the King line from these sacred documents, and to change the records, as they would try to sell this false and fraudulent area of instruction to these people who inhabited Palestine, as to the chosen household of God. Thus it is that these we call Jews, and who Jesus called Jews (Yehudin) were a fraud and a hoax even in that time. But they had gained control of the Temple and they were giving lip service to its doctrine and were waging war against any status of the kingdom. But the Essenes were still dedicated to the Kingdom and its process. But when we deal with these people who were a fraud and who have no design for the program of God's Kingdom, these then are those who have no spiritual capacity, no spiritual leadership, and no creative capacity, thus no answer for the peoples needs. All they have is the preservation of their own authority and their own power. Thus it was that the Essene company had anticipated that MESSIAH would come. They were the ones in carrying out most actively, the instructions, and maintaining the people in this hope, that MESSIAH would come. In fact when the events surrounding the birth of Christ took place they were one of the first of the peoples of Palestine to see the great significance involved in this, outside of Mary & Joseph, or those who had been in close connection with Zacharias the High Priest. You remember also at the time of the announcement by the Angel Gabriel to Mary as to the fact that she would bear the child which would be the embodiment of God, 'YAHSHUA who would save His people from their sin.' you remember that the Angel had also appeared to Zacharias the father of John the Baptist, and to Elizabeth his wife, the cousin of Mary. And in the instance of this the Angel declared to Zacharias that he would be the father of a child, that Elizabeth would be blessed with a child, but Zacharias spoke up and said: my wife is too old for this, and I am an old man, and he laughed at the Angel. He was immediately stricken dumb, and couldn't say a word, and the Angel said: you will be the father of your wife's child, and when he comes you will call him John, for he shall prepare the way of the king. Now; we discover that there is much in the ancient narratives, but in the Scripture also you remember that people came to ask Zacharias as to what to name the child, and he took a pen in his hand and wrote, John, and thus John the Baptist was named. You say: but what has this to do with the background of today, and our celebration of Palm Sunday? It is a vital pattern for the beginning of a tremendous pageantry of events which Christianity should know and should understand, from the smallest child to the most developed Clergy. I tell you that this was a unique situation because this child, John the Baptist, was speaking and praising God and he was putting word together when most babies are just cooing and having nothing to say until they have learned their environment and have begun to pick up words at a later point. But this child, John the Baptist, came in with all the wisdom in the eyes of babies, but he had a voice which was already declaring the praises to the Glories of God.

When the birth of The Christ took place then Christ was taken to a place of safety, and it was only by Divine providence that the life of John the Baptist was spared. You know the history, and the record of how the Wise men saw the star and came to the place of birth. We know that the Wise men came later and that the 4th Wiseman's story is also a historical pattern. But when he arrived in the city of Bethlehem Joseph and Mary had already left this city and gone down to Egypt, after being warned in a dream, and also by the Wise men concerning the animosity of Herod, and their own strange feelings about all this. And being warned by this then Joseph and Mary took Jesus into the land of Egypt, and there by the Pyramid and the Sphinx, then Jesus is maintained for the security of His person until the death of Herod.

At this same time John the Baptist was at his home of the Chief Priest of the town of Bethlehem, and we are not talking about the Chief Priests and their households at the Temple of Jerusalem which are under the control of Anna and Caiphas who are largely Canaanite households. But we are talking about the father of John the Baptist the Priest of this small Temple of Bethlehem, who is a true Levite, and a proper Priest. You remember how this 4th Wiseman came to the Temple of Bethlehem to the home of Zacharias, but he was looking for the manger, for the birthplace of the King. Instead now he hears the cries of Bethlehem as the army of Herod King of the Jews comes into that city also hoping to kill the MESSIAH, so HE would not rise and build a kingdom. Killing babes because of a desire to keep the power over this land in the hands of these usurpers, but was also fulfilling Biblical prophecy which was for this hour.

Thus it was, this Wiseman reached out and took out of his cradle this baby, John the Baptist, and he folded him under his great cloak because as a great Potentate of power they would not put their hands on this Wiseman. They would not even question his authority because Rome would not even stand for that.

Thus as the army rushed up to the home of John the Baptist then this tiny babe was folded under the robe of this great and stately Priest; this Wiseman of our race, and thus they were not able to kill John the Baptist. Thus from the beginning John the Baptist was an unusually marked person, because his father was worried about his security and his life. But knowing that the true supporters of the Kingdom, and the Faith were out in the hills and the caves outside of Jerusalem, and even though many of them had jobs or professions and were identified with the city of Jerusalem, still they would always retire to the areas of their libraries, and to where their Savants were hiding and thus to these people then John the Baptist would be taken to safety. The Essenes were hiding, all the way from the Sea of Galilee to the Mountain tops, all through the old water courses and the cavern systems beneath the hills, and this was their underground movement at work. There is a great history and a panorama of events that surrounds these Essenes, and these situations at that time, because John the Baptist was raised in that atmosphere.

There is something about John the Baptist you should know, men like Polycart and Clements and early Church Fathers knew about it, and it was a very important part of early Church history, because from the time he was a small baby, John the Baptist was telling these people who were taking care of him what God was planning to do. He cited that God was himself going to be embodied in the earth, born of a virgin, grow up among His people, but he was KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And that he, John the Baptist, had been selected by the Father to come to tell them and to prepare the way. And John also told them that they would be surprised because they thought that HE would restore the kingdom at this time and would gather the children of Israel that were scattered. That he was going to throw out these usurpers and even Rome, and build the kingdom once again. But John said: I know different, because I have been told that He is to come first because He made the Covenant with our Fathers. And He has promised there are certain things which He will do. He will not take the Crown, He will take only the Cup, and in that Cup shall rest all the guilt of the errors of our race. And having set us free, then He builds His Kingdom at a later date. But this purpose for which He comes is a most important purpose, and I have been sent to prepare the way before, HE who is KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE, WHO WILL DWELL IN THE EARTH, as a child.

We are told in the Essene records that up until he approached 12 years of age that John the Baptist talked to them about the majesty of heaven, talked to them about the vast Hosts who went from one end of the Universe to the other. The Essenes coordinated what this small child said with the Mysteries which came out of the Books of Enoch, and later these things would be confirmed by the Revelations of the Apostle Paul, and he recorded them in his Apocalypse.

Thus it was that between the age of 10 and 12, the memory of John became more foggy as to the things of heaven, and more important became the ministry soon to descend upon him. By the time he was 12 years of age we are told that John the Baptist could no longer recall the things of heaven, or the events that has taken place in the heavens, but a great strange and driving urge descended upon him to call upon people to repent of their error, and get ready for the Kingdom of God was at hand. The King of the Universe was about to take manifest Himself. The King of the Universe was about to come to earth. So John the Baptist rose up, from the age of 12 as a son in Israel, and at the age of 30 he was well known through out the land of Palestine. True he was dressed in skins which had been tanned, and he was referred to as a Prophet who was out in the wilderness dressed in goatskins, and preaching to the people. Later Jesus was to say: what did you go out to see, A man dressed in Goatskins who was preaching? Then Jesus said to His disciples, I want to tell you that never was there a man born of woman, greater than John the Baptist. Why? Because this was the first time that anyone had ever dwelt in earth, and then later came back to be born in a physical body, for a specific purpose. Jesus said: if you could but understand, this is Elijah who was to come. Remember the Mystery as in the words of Malachi 3:1. 'Behold! I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way of the LORD.' So even before the first incarnate revelation of The Christ, a heavenly messenger had been sent, and John the Baptist was this child. We have the historic record of how John the Baptist was out baptizing people, and in those days he was preaching: repent for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand. And when he saw the false Shama Pharisees, and the Sadducees coming to his baptism he said: 'oh, ye generation of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?' I am going to say one thing about this Evangelist, John the Baptist, He wasn't trying to convert this generation of vipers like a lot of our modern preachers. He just said: I know who you are, for you are the serpents, the generation of vipers. You have come out of the fallen Angels, and you are of the Luciferian line. And then he identifies them as the generation of the serpent and the vipers, and asks them who warned them to flee from the wrath which was to come? Then under the power of his ministry, John looks up and sees Jesus coming toward him and he said: 'Behold! He who approaches, the latches of His shoes I am unworthy to un-loop.' The Spirit moved upon John the Baptist, and he identified HIM as the MESSIAH. Then he heard these words: 'I would have thee to baptize me.' But John said: 'I have need to be baptized of thee.' But Jesus replied: 'Suffer it to be, for I have ordained it.'

In fact my friends: these plans were deep rooted, for even among such men as Joseph of Arimathea, one of the wealthiest and most influential of men in Palestine, this brother of Mary who had a great town house in Jerusalem, and a high seat upon the Sanhedrin, was also reassured in his heart. This Joseph of Arimathea was also dedicated to the true Priesthood of Israel, and to the restoration of the Kingdom of Israel. And he was most proud of his sister who they now had testimony of, as the MESSIAH, the embodiment of God. Though it was that the Essene company who had searched the records, and had made long preparations were also the holders by trust, of things that were of significance to Israel. They possessed the golden crown which had been taken to the home of Joseph of Arimathea, and there had been placed within this crown the sapphire and the emeralds, and the ruby which were a part of the gift from the 4th., Wiseman as he came. The Essenes were preparing for a coronation, and they had every expectation and every hope that this would come about. The coronation of the King was their hopes, for this Essene company like a political machine was setting everything ready so as to crown Jesus as King.

I want you to realize that they worked night and day at this task, and there is a historic area of fact as to this, and we will discuss this tonight for it contains a very vital part with a lot of things which were to follow, and will yet come to pass. Because there was also a military order which moved out of the underground, it was in every community of Palestine, and it was made up of patriots who were nationalists, and who wanted to build the kingdom of Israel now. It was also led by a brilliant young ruler among this group who was descended from the Captain of the Kings host in the days when Babylon took their people into captivity. And generations of these descendants had continued to be the military hope for the rebuilding of Israel. And thus it was that they also had hoped and worked for this day. But still there was something strange about this which was still talked about among the Essenes. What were these strange words which this child John the Baptist had told them? Did he not say that at that time HE would take the Chalice and not the crown? Did he not say that at this time there was some strange cup he would take, and that this cup was very vital for Israel? That HE must take this Cup first, for this was His covenant and His promise? They searched the Scriptures, and they pondered all these things. And Joseph of Arimathea said that since this John was sent from heaven, and that now they even had words of Jesus that there never was such a man, born of a woman, as this John the Baptist? Therefore if this is the Prophet who is to make way for the LORD, then we must be ready for all things.

Thus this wealthy man who owned the tin mines of Cornwall, and whose ships prowled the Mediterranean sea going all the way out from Palestine to Britain, must help in these preparations. This is the man whose hides of land were given to the building of the first Christian Church in Britain, and this Joseph of Arimathea was a man well known through out the Mediterranean area, and to Corinth for a Silversmith. And out of Corinth came Demetrius who had also served the Roman court as a designer, a silversmith of great renown. Thus none but the best would satisfy Joseph of Arimathea for this task which must be performed. Demetrius was brought to the home of Joseph of Arimathea and here in this great dinning hall was a table at which Jesus often sat with His disciples. This is where HE talked to the people of Jerusalem and the surrounding area as they came to talk to Him of their problems, and to be advised. Often Jesus would stay at the House of Joseph as He was historically an Uncle of Jesus after the flesh. But here in this home was also the main headquarters for Jesus Although he was prone to go down to the house of Zebedee, and among those of His disciples, but the home of Joseph of Arimathea was always open to Jesus.

In the instance of this there was a small alcove at the end of the dining room, and there behind draperies sat Demetrius the Silversmith, and as Jesus and His disciples sat and talked at that long table, then Demetrius was constantly studying their faces, and engraving them on a Chalice. He was to carve or engrave them seated around this table, and this would be a perfect likeness of those disciples, all but one. For Judas of Iscariot was also seated there, and this disciple caused problems, as three times Demetrius tried to engrave the face of Judas and three times he polished off the likeness of Judas, as he could not get the evil features of that face of Judas to stand still, and finally he depicted the face of Judas as turned away. And if you were to look at the Chalice today you would recognize this evil Jew who would sell Jesus for a few pieces of silver.

In the instance of this, when he engraved the face of Jesus I want you to think of this, for it has a beautiful significance. If you were to look at that Chalice you would understand. Incidentally that Chalice has been here in the city of Los Angeles, and I understand that it is right now in the Metropolitan Museum of Arts. It had been bought by a Philanthropist and given permanently to this nation. It was found at Antioch and its authenticity is well founded because it was found at Antioch after it had been buried there, to hide it from one of the great raiding attempts to wipe out Christianity at that early day. This is also the Chalice whose inner cup was the, Holy Grail, which people had looked for so long. For an inner cup had reposed in this Chalice, and it had been rumoured that it was taken into the heavens by an Angelic Host who came to the garden. It is also rumoured that there was a cup hidden away at the time of the hiding of the outer cup, or Chalice. There is a silver cup inside that Chalice, but whether it is the original is not known, but it has been established without a doubt that this outer Chalice is the original one that was hidden at the time of the destruction of the Church at Antioch. And it is the original outside cup which Joseph of Arimathea had made at that time, and one the outside of this outside cup there is no engraving in colour. So when you look at this picture of Jesus and the disciples they don't have brown eyes, or blue eyes. You can't tell what colour the hair is because it is all engraved in silver, but, I will tell you something very remarkable about this, and this fact has always existed. It doesn't make any difference whether it was an Italian painter or a German painted or an Anglo-Saxon painter, it doesn't matter whether it is Todd's Christ, or Michael Angelo or who ever paints HIM, whether they paint HIM according to their kind, whether with brown hair, and brown eyes, or whether with blond hair and blue eyes, closer to HIS revealed identity, the fact remains that as you look at that picture, immediately you know which one is Jesus. It doesn't matter wherever you go in the world, if you look at a picture of Jesus you know who it is.

Oh! you say, there is something about it. Yes, that is surely true, for no man can paint a picture of The Christ without an inspiration. No man can carve it into the silver without feeling the impact. Probably no one was as inspired as Demetrius the Silversmith who looked at the face of Jesus and carved into the silver, the beauty, and the Majesty of THAT FACE. Even today, as you look at that Chalice you will recognize 'That Face' right away, and no one has to tell you which one is Jesus. Perhaps this is one of the greatest of our historic evidence for the face of Jesus always looks as you expect Jesus to look. That the spirit seen within your heart is the image of God, and is also accurate because we have this confirming evidence, even in our time. So there as the disciples met to talk then Demetrius carved this Chalice. Although they did not fully understand its purpose, they were beginning to think that this related to a dual area of Christ's background. That he was not only King of Kings and that verily this was MESSIAH, and that they believed HIM to be God, but HE was also of the Household of David. He was a proper descendent of David of the lineage of the Throne, but also there existed behind this Patriarchial background this feeling that this was VERY GOD. And if this was VERY GOD, then HE was the High Priest of the race and put all other Priesthoods in similitude. And this Chalice which He would hold would be the symbol of the His Priesthood, the ability to assume in the ministry of this Priesthood the ultimate service for His people. And there was never a Priest like this Priest, because other Priests had to make atonement for their own transgressions before they can make atonement for the sins of the people. We are told all this in the Book of Hebrews as well as in the Old Testament records, but this High Priest being VERY GOD to fulfil

His destiny had to be the very Lamb of God slain before the foundation of the world by His own purpose, and plan, for the accomplishment of the Great Atoning work for your race. On the other hand this was the Lamb without spot or blemish. This was the embodiment of God without transgression or without error.

So it was that the Essene company waited for that day, and as they waited they contemplated the animosity of the Jews, who plotted, and consulted constantly as to how they would put HIM to death. All through out the Gospels is this especially brought out but more especially in the Gospel of John as to how they plotted to put HIM to death. How they piled stones down in the treasury, to even try to stone HIM to death. And at that time He unveiled a great pattern of His identity and the program of His Kingdom, they listened and then went away plotting how they would put HIM to death. They had one of their own OGPU..ADL agents with HIM all the time, but of course Jesus knew this for He said: 'I have chosen you 12 but one of you is a devil.' Under this instance never forget that Judas carried the money bag, and in this instance the Scripture tells us of the nature of Judas. We know that when Mary brought forth the fine ointment that she had been preserving, that in her love for The Christ she anointed HIM, and immediately Judas of Iscariot said this: because he was a thief. There is one thing about Biblical records, in this case it recorded that Judas was a thief.

I think this is a good identification of the Jews anyway, I think they are thieves in so many ways, at least they are all deceivers, and thus here we have a pattern set. For here was Judas of Iscariot working in their midst, and listening, and always reporting back to the High Priests, but also always watching all these functions.

Among the disciples they were always most earnest for here was HE who could raise the dead, unstop deaf ears, still the wind and the waves, and they wondered when He would re-establish the Kingdom, and then their race would assume their authority and their power. To show you how far this reached into the hearts of these people then you have an example in the mother of Zebedee's sons, James and John. You can understand a mother making her desires known to The Christ, for Jesus had been in her home, and her two sons were very close to Jesus. In fact John was known to be the beloved disciple, and John probably sought more than any other disciple the great spiritual institution and meaning that might come out of many of these sayings. In fact this mother knew what she was hearing, and what was going on, for many meetings had been held here in her house, and many things had been planned in her home. All the designs of the plans, and the Essene company contact with the community, all the underground organization and the raising of the money for the coronation of Christ was all discussed in her home. So she said to Jesus one day: LORD, my sons have been your disciples and very Faithful to you, and I want you to make me a promise. When you take the kingdom and become our King, make my sons, one a Prime Minister and one an Executer of affairs, so one will sit on your right hand and the other on your left. And I will be the proudest mother in all Palestine.

Someone said: but you don't ask someone like Jesus for something like that? Oh! Yes you do, if you believe like she did that the Kingdom was about to be set up, that this was the MESSIAH, and if you were ambitious for your sons. Yes you ask, if you want your children to sit side by side, one on the right and one on the left of the LORD GOD, the MASTER AND KING. Yes, you ask, and that is exactly what she did. But Jesus said to her: My kingdom is not for this era of time, and the thing you are asking for is not of this timing. Of course she couldn't understand this because they were busy making preparations everywhere, and the Christ seemed to be moving nonchalantly through all this without any idea of what was going on. But don't you worry about all this, for HE knew every thought that was going through their minds, and He knew every process of their thinking. He knew what was transpiring and He proved it, as He even took time out to look up in the tree and discover Zacchaeus, the man who was short of stature, who climbed up the tree to get a better look at Jesus. And Jesus just walked under that tree and said: Come down Zacchaeus for I am going to have dinner at your house, for this was planned before the world was framed. Thus it was only Zacchaeus who was surprised, never Jesus.

I point out to you then that this day we call Palm Sunday takes on added significance, for it was only a short time after this before the ultimate events for which The Christ came to earth were to materialize. His disciples were in touch, the uniforms had been secured by Joseph of Arimathea which were the blue tunics with the golden crossed fish, for this army of Christ, and even the short swords had come from Damascus, and thus this defensive army was ready and would be there for this crowning of the King. Thus the plans were ready and the disciples said HE would come to Jerusalem as far as they knew, on the first day of the week, but they would keep them informed if there was a change of plans. Thus for an intent and for a purpose, the people started coming to Jerusalem from all over Palestine. And this was to be a big day, for as Jesus came into the city, they planned to crown HIM King and then the armies were going to cleanse the Temple, they would also even drive out the Romans. And no doubt they thought that HE would give commands, and the lightening would flash and the thunder would roll and the Hosts of heaven would come in, and they would go out to conquer the world for God. These people here in Palestine, these true Israelites, really thought and hoped that all this was very close. They knew that ONE who could raise the dead, and still the winds and the waves, this MESSIAH would have all the armies of heaven at His command. And yet did not this John the Baptist say that all heaven obeyed HIM? Did John say that HE was to come down as a baby and now they were ready for the coronation, this was their expectation and this was their hope, and they were trying to forget all else. Then the morning came and Jesus said to His disciples, we will go to Jerusalem, and the disciples knew that everything was alright. They would not have to run and say that plans had to be changed, no everything was right on schedule.

Thus Jesus and His disciples were moving toward Jerusalem, and the people were also moving toward Jerusalem. One of the disciples said: Master we should have a chariot for you to ride in as we go into Jerusalem today. But Jesus said: now you know that we have never rode in chariots before this, we have not moved in pomp so what do you mean that we need a chariot. But the disciples said: it isn't right that you should walk into Jerusalem today. Jesus said: Well alright, just over the hill a man is tying up a small ass to a tree, so you go over to the other side of the hill and you tell this man that your Master has need of this little donkey, and he will give it to you. This bothered the disciples somewhat, but never had the Christ told them something which was not true so they went over the hill and sure enough there was this little donkey, and they said: 'The master hath need of this', and the man said: take it, but they were also fulfilling a prophecy. 'Behold! thy King cometh riding an ass, and the foal of an ass is running along side the mother.' This is the Scripture concerning the entrance of The Christ into Jerusalem.

There is no question of the fact that as they moved toward Jerusalem they heard the crowd also moving on Jerusalem. And as they came down the hill toward the gate of this portion of the city of Jerusalem which they were to enter that a great cry rolled out as the people also poured out of the city to flank the road. And little children ran before HIM scattering palm branches, and a great cry went up: 'Hosanna in the Highest, to the son of David. Blessed is YAHSHUA who comes in the name of YAHWEH.' They knew who He was and they called Him YAHSHUA. Of course we call Him Jesus but this is the Greek for Azuse, as the Apostle Paul tells us. But in that day it was, 'Hail YAHSHUA, BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF YAHWEH'. Behold He comes in the name of Saviour-God, just exactly as Isaiah had prophesied.

Thus it was that the people shouted, All Hail to the King, and they ran before Jesus and He entered Jerusalem, and moved toward the Temple. Here was the money changers, and all the activities they had been engaged in, for so long, every since they had taken over the Temple activities. But as Jesus came closer to the steps of the Temple, now came forth a special robed group of Priests, and these carried a beautiful pillow, and on this pillow was a beautiful Crown, and the sunlight reflected off this Crown and on the Temple steps, the false Priests were watching all of this. Behind the true Levi Priests came more of them carrying another pillow and on this pillow was the beautiful Chalice like Cup, this was the Essene and the true Priesthood of Israel, and as they approached the people crowded around, and the disciples were of course very expectant, and Joseph of Arimathea, one of the Sanhedrin was here also accompanying this strange procession. The anger upon the countenances of these usurping Priests was great, for they saw the possibility that something spectacular was about to happen, and they might lose their power. Then as Joseph of Arimathea signaled to the bearer of the Crown, he and the other leaders of the Essene as well as the crowd cried: 'Take the crown; Hail to the King.' Then they said to Jesus: Thou art our MESSIAH, the son of David for whom we have waited and our deliverance has now come, our suffering has been high, and they now held out this Crown to Jesus. But Jesus was to say: yes this crown is my right, and thou art my people, and I am thy King, but I have come in this ministry for something more important than this crown. If I was to take this crown at this hour, I would rule you in slavery of guilt, in slavery of transgression and sin. Therefore I must not take this crown, instead I must take this cup, for no man can drink this cup of which I shall drink. For in this cup I shall take upon myself all the transgression, and all the areas of accountability upon which judgment shall fall. And when I have taken this cup, and have finished this purpose for which I have come then ye shall be free. And then hence will I take the crown for my kingdom is not of this hour. Then he went on to say: 'If my kingdom were of this hour my servants would fight, and the kingdom would not be delivered to the Jews. The day will come when my servants will fight, but that day is hence, but that day will come and the kingdom will be delivered, and I shall take the crown, and I shall be thy King.' In this instance then HE reached over and took the Chalice. How strange was this tension in this hour, for as He took the Chalice, there was a great disappointment that filled the masses round about. They had been shouting for their King and great expectation had been built up and all their preparation, their activities had been leading up to this hour, and all had been done with great hope of deliverance, yet not realizing of course the type of deliverance.

I tell you that great crowds like this do not just happen spontaneously, they come from planning and any politician knows this, for here Israel had been planning and preparing for the Crowning of their King. And here in the midst of all this was Judas of Iscariot, and he hears and sees these people wanting to crown Jesus as King and he sees himself as carrying the moneybag, and he also cries out to Jesus: take the crown, take the crown, for all of a sudden he saw himself a treasury department employer of the King of Kings. But Jesus turned and looked at Judas, as He was to look at him also a few days hence, and He just reached out and took the Chalice. Then holding the Chalice up, He turned to His people and told them of its great significance.

Then He turned and handed the Chalice to John, and John then turned and handed it back to Joseph of Arimathea. Then Jesus turned back to look at the Temple and He saw this scurvy lot of usurper Priests upon the steps of the Temple and He reached down and picked up a hard rope, and knotted it together. Then He turned and climbed the steps and flogged them off the steps of the Temple, and He said: Ye have made my Fathers house a den of murderers, thieves and liars. So in the hour when they would have crowned Him King, He acted like one. For on this day when they would have crowned Him King, He took the Chalice, and then turned and drove the Jews off the steps of the Temple. And these usurpers were in such great fear that they never lifted a hand to stop HIM. After the disciples and Jesus were gone from the Temple, after the Blue Tunic army had faded away, after the disappointed people were gone, then Judas went secretly to the Temple, and told his masters: if you want to capture the leaders of this secret army, I will tell you where they are.

Strange as it may seem this was a day of strange preparations, for these people would have crowned The Christ, KING. And I want you to know that these people were not among those who later killed HIM, those who plotted to put HIM to death, they were not those who would have crowned HIM King. No, they were those who said: if we do not kill this one, He will gather the children of God who are scattered abroad, and we will lose control of these people. We will lose our influence and power over this nation, if we do not kill HIM. Thus it was, that in this instance these events of Palm Sunday were to seal the total and complete dedication of our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed by His Name, who not only came to earth as Lord of Lord's, KING OF KINGS, AND MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE, but who made that atonement the most important area of His Ministry. For this reason you and I can look God in the face today, for He has set us free. And when He returns to rule His Kingdom as He shall, then He will rule over free men. Not man under bondage, not under guilt complex's, nor under partial bondage, or earthbound. He rules a Kingdom which reaches through out the Universe, He rules a Kingdom whose many sons and daughters of their Father share with HIM this administration. For you and I his sons and daughters stand before HIM without transgression, without guilt, without fear, because He has removed all these things, and consummated it in atonement, and then established the evidence of His Mighty power WITH HIS RESURRECTION!

There isn't any question of the impact which would follow from that day onward concerning the works of that day. It was the announcement of the great and mighty field of the work of His atonement in the selection of that Chalice. This is why I think that Christendom is most fortunate that this Chalice was preserved in that little church of Antioch, and was buried there in its ruins, until it was found. And now it is back in circulation, for when this great Cathedral was dedicated here in Los Angeles, which is one of the most beautiful in all Christendom, as this church was dedicated they had this Chalice right here. This Chalice which was once held in the hands of Jesus, and it was right here in this church in Los Angeles. It has been shown in world fairs; it was shown in various places, but now it reposes right here in the United States, because a philanthropist was led to decide that it should always remain as one of the great treasures of Christendom.

I tell you that if all Christians knew on this Palm Sunday this great story of the preparation and the purpose that surrounded this day of Coronation, and of the rejection of the Crown, and the acceptance of the Chalice and the purpose of this Chalice, they would be changed people. I tell you that there would now be a mighty host of men dedicated to defend Christ, and would move at His command just as did those who rose to His defence in the early history of Christendom.

In these days as we observe the events of today, we realize we are at the other end of the story. That was the beginning of the Christian era, and we now stand at the end of that era. And the day will soon come when no longer will we see the powers of darkness carrying out their objectives. We are about to see the total victory of God's Kingdom. We have often heard these words: the Kingdom of God suffereth violence, and the violence taketh it by storm. But at the end of the age, my servants will fight and my kingdom will not be given to the Jews.

It would be totally impossible for a Christian minister to tell the story of what transpired at the Crucifixion of Christ, in the great hour of His Passion, and not identify those who planned to destroy HIM, not realizing that they could not destroy the Eternal and Almighty YAHWEH-God. I point out to you that even at this time we have the same enemy fighting Christ and His Kingdom. They have taken prayer out of our schools, and now they are moving with suits to take away the tax exemption of our churches, and your exemption for your tithe to your Faith. This is the design to crush Christianity, and they were not satisfied with the Crucifixion of Christ, they are now to destroy Christianity, but God has another plan. For Christianity moves through your race, it moves through your nations, and it has reached out to every white Christian nation. And today this Great Church of Jesus Christ with its spiritual centre is an indestructible people, and an indestructible institution because from the power of His Resurrection to the mighty dynamics of His Holy Spirit you cannot put out any institution God has given birth to in this manner.

So we point out to you that this is a part of your heritage, and we rise to the challenge of this hour, to join ranks with Christians everywhere, with a great solid opposition to the hosts of Anti-Christ, and the powers of darkness. Knowing that we are now at the other end of a great cycle we look forward to the greatest events of our History. We look forward to that mighty challenge of all challenges, that reflective declaration which comes forth out of that old hymn: 'All Hail the power of Jesus' Name, ye ransomed of the fall. Bring forth the Royal Diadem and crown Him Lord of all.' Do you know one of the most important facets of that? It is the chosen seed of Israel's race, ye ransomed from the fall.' I tell you that the Priest who produced the redemption shall be King over His Kingdom, and in that day there shall be no Canaanite in the House of God, and we shall be free from all the curses that Lucifer has brought in. So we tell you that it is good for all Christendom to commemorate the cry, Crown HIM King. But let us not forget all the areas of Biblical record which were left for our instruction, so that we might not only know our responsibility, but that we might know our enemy in this day. That we might lift up a standard against Lucifer, and all his works. That we might be one of the first to answer that mighty Trumpet which shall blast forth one of these days. Behold! Thy King cometh, and we shall call for His Coronation.

Do not forget that if there is any opportunity to resist the enemy it is now. It is a call for the children of God to victoriously rise, and triumph in Armageddon, do not forget that. End of message. YAHWEH BLESS

JUST HOW MUCH DO THE JEWS HATE JESUS CHRIST?

In Israeli elementary schools students are forbidden to use a traditional plus sign (+) as it looks too much like a Christian cross, they use this symbol instead:  $\pm$  [1]

The slur 'kike' is also rooted in the Jews' hatred for Christ. On Ellis Island, Jewish immigrants who were illiterate were asked to sign entry-forms with an 'x,' they refused since they thought an 'x' was too similar to a Christian cross, and instead signed with a circle. The Yiddish word for 'circle' is kikel, so the immigration inspectors eventually began referring to them as 'kikels,' this was eventually shortened to 'kike.' [2]
