Gay Marriage and Homosexuality

The growing threat of homosexuals attaining marriage does not seem to be a big concern among many Americans. Some individuals even think that it would be a good idea to let queers marry each other.

From a religious standpoint, homosexuality is an abomination. From the story of Sodom and Gomorra to Leviticus 18:22. God makes it perfectly clear that it is an abomination to even be involved in that sort of lifestyle; let alone marry one of your own gender.

Marriage is a religious ceremony. Holy matrimony & "in front of the eyes of God" come to mind when one thinks of marriage. Homosexuals have no right to defile a ceremony that has its bases in a religion that denounces that very act.

Proposals have been made to give "them" benefits of being a registered married couple. They have no defense to their unholy crusade against morality.

Even to an atheist homosexuality is wrong because it goes against natural law and order. It is bad enough that these immoral anti-Christ's are raising children that they adopt, having parades flaunting their pervasive behavior and being glamorized by television. If we as the people of this country allow them to take the last aspect of our culture that they have not already destroyed, the impressionable youth of our nation will be given an even stronger impression of homosexuality being morally sound and acceptable than they already have. We must put a stop to this outrage immediately! We must do whatever is necessary to preserve marriage for those who truly deserve it. SAVE OUR CHRISTIAN HERITAGE!
