

50+ years ago, give or a take a year or three, vocal whites warned of the negro proclivity for violence. These unnamed and forgotten speakers foretold of Negroes rampaging like toddlers, stealing when they wanted, committing rape when it suited them. Some were mayors with heavily negro districts and knew first hand the inability of Negroes to function as civilized human beings. They tried to tell the world that Negroes could not be turned into whites with dark skin. They protested, marched, whined and complained that desegregation would result in ruination.

For over five decades we've empowered Negroes, franchised them, pampered them, placed them on pedestals as creatures of worship or pity. And for all that spending, pampering and pandering, we have vast urban areas of slums, ghettos, ruins filled with some of the most violent, blood thirsty, savage, feral creatures to ever stride the planet. We've had 50+ years of forced integration. 50+ years of generous social entitlement programs. 50+years of excuses. And, the fears expressed by white leaders in the late 1950s and early sixties have come to pass.

Black African's . . . Negroes . . . have received more help than any other people in human history, and yet they still remain the most slothful, lazy, feckless, violent, brutal, and savage. No race in human history has been given more than Negroes. Yet, for all the help, Negroes have nothing to show for it - NOTHING. In fact, they have more slothful lives, are more backward, more tribal, more paleolithic than ever.

A legion of liberals living in gilded cages whine that we need to give more to the negro, provided them opportunities, give them assistance to over come poverty/racism/both. They continually assume that given the same opportunities as whites, Negroes can become productive citizens, that they can turn away from the bombardment of all that glitters and supress their inner child. Guess what, Negroes can't. They are not whites with dark skin, their gratification deterrence is almost non-existent. They are, as confederate officers noted, "children in adult bodies"

From the mid-1960s onward, We've done it the anti's way. We elevated the non-white, specifically the negro savage, we've given money to bring them out of poverty, we've passed laws to prevent non-white discrimination, we've advanced them in our schools without them needing to learn, we've given them jobs and home loans they didn't qualify for. In every aspect of society, antis have pushed the doctrine it is socially and legally unacceptable to show any bias.

The real question is WHAT have we to show for it? Is life better now than it was before such social engineering took place? OR, are cities decaying ruins? Are Negroes educated on par with whites after nearly three generations. More importantly, do current blacks embrace the education their grandparents demanded? Have we achieved the color blind society hippies of the 1960s dreamed about?

Some 50+ years after civil rights movement demanded blacks be included into white society, we are more segregated now than ever before. Blacks culture is so far removed from the main stream culture (the culture that does the building, inventing, creating, and general is the engine of progress) that is unrecognizable as progressive and has more in common with the African tribal warriors of the first century BC. 50 years of embracing sloth on the slim hopes that antis could turn blacks into whites.

It is time to face the raw, cold, unpleasant facts -- bestowing equality and allowing the Negro to live among us as equals hasn't worked. Their way of life is not ours.

In 1965, Negroes were truly free to chart their own course. No longer could whites dictate special polices for handling Homo Sapiens Africansis. No longer could this savage hominid be contained in special game reserves (segregation).

It is 2023, 58 years later, and we see, in places like Detroit, just what the negro has done with that freedom. Around the globe, from Atlanta to Zimbabwe, the negro lives a life of savagery, of instinct, or brutality. There is no building, no development, no creative thought. No negro civilization has arose nor could they maintain the ones given to them.

Instead, we have roving packs of predators, preying on our citizenry while demanding we support them.

So, the smartest 16% of Blacks are as intelligent as smartest 50% of Whites. 80% of Blacks score at or below the "low functioning" category.

The least intelligent ten percent of Whites have IQs below 80; forty percent of Blacks have IQs that low.

Only one Black in six is more intelligent than the average White; five Whites out of six are more intelligent than the average Black.

These differences show in every test of general cognitive ability that anyone, of any race or nationality, has yet been able to devise. And they are reflected in countless everyday situations, "Life is an IQ test."

Further, only one-in-3.5 million (.00003%) African Blacks have an IQ of 140 or higher (genius level). But one-in-83 (1.2%) U.S. Whites is a genius. Therefore the per capita genius rate for U.S.-resident Whites is 41,000 times higher than it is for African Blacks.
